

Between 1 oct. 2013-30 sept. 2016 DSEis partner in the ERASMUS project European Studies and Research in Adult and Learning Education–ESRALE (nr. 540117-LLP-1-2013-1-DE-ERASMUS-EQMC), projectcoordinated by the University of Kaiserslautern (Germany), and run together with ten university partners from nineEuropean countries.

Within ESRALE is aimed to be extended and updated the European Master in Adult Education (EMAE), and to be set up the European Doctoral School in Adult Education, deepening the research cooperation between different research centers and universities across Europe. It is set up this way the largest European network of professionalization in adult education at university level.

The master program run at the Department of Educational Sciences from the West University of Timisoara (WUT), compatible with EMAE, and offered as Joint Program si called Master in Educational Management and Curriculum Development.

More details at: <https://www.esrale.org/>, and at the project coordinator for the WUT partner,prof.univ.dr. Simona Sava (lidia.sava@e-uvvt.ro).